FOREWORD

AN EXHIBITION BY THE ROYAL SCOTTISH
SOCIETY OF PAINTERS IN WATER-COLOURS

This exhibition has been arranged by the National Gallery of Canada and represents the best work being accomplished in this medium in Great Britain at the present time. This collection of water-colours may be taken as a reciprocal exhibition to one that was recently sent through the National Gallery to Edinburgh, representing the work of water-colour painters in Canada which is now touring Great Britain and which has been received with commendation and interest wherever shown.

The present exhibition consists of over one hundred examples by many of the leading painters of Great Britain, and may be taken as the attitude of water-colour artists of the present day, who are working in a medium that is, by tradition and practice, a typical British art with a long line of artist ancestry going back to the late 18th century, and including some of the most illustrious names in British Art.
